Disinvestment in CPSUs

46. SHRI NILOTPAL BASU: Will the Minister of HEAVY INDUSTRIES AND PUBLIC ENTERPRISES be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that the Cabinet has recently decided to disinvest the equity of Government's equity below 50 per cent in a number of CPSUs and hand over the Management of these Companies to the future strategic partners.

(b) if so, by when the names of the companies and the other details thereof;

(c) whether the Prime Minister had re-assured the Railway Minister subsequent to the Cabinet decision that the Cabinet decision will be put in abeyance until the issue is discussed with the Hon'ble Railway Minister; and

(d) if so, the details thereof?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HEAVY INDUSTRIES AND PUBLIC ENTERPRISES (DR. VALLABHBHAI KATHIRIA): (a) to (d) The policy of the government on disinvestment has been set out in the Budget Speech of 2000-2001. It has been announced that in non-strategic PSUs Government's equity will be reduced to 26% or lower if necessary.

The strategic sectors are:

1. Arms and Ammunitions and the allied items of defence equipments, defence aircrafts and warships.
2. Atomic Energy (except in the areas related to generation of nuclear power and application of radiation and radio isotopes to agriculture, medicine and non-strategic industries).
3. Railway transport

All other PSEs would be strategic. The reduction of government share in these will not be automatic. The manner and pace of doing so could be worked out on case to case basis.
